

Boots 'n' Buckles Dance Club – Playlist 4-18-2008

We (Evelyn & Denny) were the D.J.'s last night at Boots N Buckles dance hall (Swiss Park in Newark, CA). There were many requests last night as the dance hall was packed. Yippieeee!

Tied for the dances with the most requests:

Crazy Foot Mambo

More Than Life (came from the Cactus Corners workshop in January--)

Tied for the 2nd most requested dances:

A Touch of Love

Amor De Hielo

Be Boy Baby

Blue Kentucky

Catch The Rain

Sea Salt Sally

The 3rd most requested:

Firecracker

Tied for the 4th most requested:

L'Appuntamento

Make A Memory

Oklahoma Wind

Siempre Cha

So Glamorous

Tied for the 5th most requested:

Angel of the Morning

Lover's Prayer

There were many others very close to all of the above, many of them listed below. Note: There were a few more from "dance card" requests but I didn't track of all those, and all of them may not be listed below. Several of the dances below were also played during "pre-dance" as well as during the regular dance. I only noted one that wasn't played during the regular dance hours (Oh Suzannah).

All in alpha order:

A Touch Of Love

Beer For My Horses

NOTE: If anyone needs a copy of Simon Ward's new dance, "The Smell Of Your Sweet Perfume," please contact me. It's not posted yet on the net. The step description came out at the LAPD festival a week ago and is in the dance booklet from that event which many folks have. Or, you can pick one up in our class next Tuesday. If there are any other step descriptions for any of the above that you may need, let me know. I can direct you to the site from which you can obtain one.

All for now!
