President's Message

Happy Easter! Our Easter Dance will be held April 13. Spring is here so wear your Spring colors and bring snacks to share. John & Gina will D.J. the Easter Dance.

Guest D.J.'s from the Bay Area continue to cover for Bob Hubbard who is recovering from back problems. Our thanks to Evelyn & Denny, John & Gina, Clint & Kelley, Neil & Linda, Diana & Tina, and Glenn & Carole for helping us

We continue to wish Bob a speedy recovery.

Look for the "Emergency Contact" form on the back table at Swiss Park. Please fill it out and return the form.

We are planning for a fun workshop on June 2, 2007 (Saturday). The theme is Retro Western Hoedown for an old fashion fun dance experience. You can mark your calendars now and the flyers are on the back table.

We continue to need articles and materials for the Roundup. Please give your input to Doris Volz by the 20th of the month.

Alice Wong has moved to a residential care home in Union City. Cards and letters may be addressed to: Alice Wong % Alice Gardens, 4531 Alice Way, Union City, CA 94587.

Several dancers from the Bay Area enjoyed another successful "Boogie til the cows come home" event at Corning, CA. Seven members of Boots 'n' Buckles participated in the entertainment section and received their "15 minutes of Fame". I think that I can remember their names if you want to ask me.

Keep on dancing,
Helen Davidson, President

Treasurer's Report - February 2007

FUN

What a great word to describe the Boogie event at Corning this last week end. One could feel the energy and excitement as soon as you walked into the room. Everyone was ready for a day and night of dancing.

Great wood floor with plenty of room for all. JP Potter was the DJ for the workshop and open dancing at night. What a great job of making sure that we were all happy.

At the workshop, Michael, Michele and Bracken made it user friendly for all who were there. Dances taught were, That Cat is High, Tailgate, Express Yourself, Freeze Frame, Mootown Mixer, Madhouse to the Max and Rock This Party.

There was an artistic challenge for those who participated in decorating a table, based on this year's theme of "Expressing Yourself". The imagination and time that was put into decorating the theme tables was amazing. Congratulations to The Happy Hoofin' Herd, from San Jose, for being voted number one.

The delicious tri tip dinner was catered by the Corning Exchange Club. After dinner there was a show put on including local youth dance groups, cloggers, routine from Dream Girls, Irish dancers and a routine that brought the house down in tears from laughing so hard. Helen, Gary, Lorraine, Rob, Carole, Norma and Pete, you are too much.

Thank you Michael and Michele for another great Boogie til the Cows Come Home event.

~ Carol Clark

Friendly reminders for members and guests:

- 1) Please sign in upon your arrival to the dance. This will help the club keep proper attendance records and for insurance/liability purposes.
- 2) Please only sign your initials on the request list. If you bring a guest(s) to BnB, please make sure that they are aware of this rule.
- 3) Please be respectful of your fellow dancers, and don't perform the "dancer squeeze." What is the "dancer squeeze?" No, it's not a new line dance. It is when a dancer "squeezes out" their fellow dancer from their current spot on the dance floor into another row, into between rows, or to a totally different location on the dance floor. This has been observed at several of the dances in the last couple of weeks. ~ Frances Lind
